HILLARY SUPPORTS
THE WAR

Right-wing Republicans hate Hillary Clinton. So that means she must not support the war in Iraq, right?

Wrong.

Hillary said the United States should not set a deadline for troop withdrawal because it would “play into the hands of the insurgents.” She characterized Representative John Murtha’s call for the immediate withdrawal of U.S. troops as “a big mistake.”

Polls show that a majority of Iraqis want the US troops to leave, as do a majority of US voters, including 62% of the women queried in a recent poll. So why is Hillary incapable of taking a clear stand on this issue? While Hillary waffles and panders, people are dying.
