

HILLARY ISN'T LISTENING!

In a recent fundraising letter for her upcoming senatorial re-election campaign Hillary Clinton claims: "Part of my job is being a good listener..." She goes on to describe all the good listening she does in her job as our United States Senator and then states, "Now I'd like to listen to you."

Included with the fundraising appeal is a three-page 2005 Critical National Issues Survey that covers a broad range of political issues--

"Part of my job is being a good listener..."

but never ONCE mentions the war in Iraq. She isn't listening to us: the war in Iraq is THE critical national issue!

Over 2,129 American troops have died in Iraq-100 of them from New York State. Things there are getting worse, not better: sixteen troops died in the first 4 days of December<sup>1</sup>. Over 30,000 Iraqi civilians have died<sup>2</sup>. In a secret national survey conducted for the British government this past summer, 82% of Iraqi respondents said they did not want coalition troops in Iraq.<sup>3</sup>

HILLARY ISN'T LISTENING!

In a recent fundraising letter for her upcoming senatorial re-election campaign Hillary Clinton claims: "Part of my job is being a good listener..." She goes on to describe all the good listening she does in her job as our United States Senator and then states, "Now I'd like to listen to you."

Included with the fundraising appeal is a three-page 2005 Critical National Issues Survey that covers a broad range of political issues--

"Part of my job is being a good listener..."

but never ONCE mentions the war in Iraq. She isn't listening to us: the war in Iraq is THE critical national issue!

Over 2,129 American troops have died in Iraq-100 of them from New York State. Things there are getting worse, not better: sixteen troops died in the first 4 days of December<sup>1</sup>. Over 30,000 Iraqi civilians have died<sup>2</sup>. In a secret national survey conducted for the British government this past summer, 82% of Iraqi respondents said they did not want coalition troops in Iraq.<sup>3</sup>

Call Senator Clinton's office

212-688-6262 (NYC) or 202-224-4451 (D.C.)

Tell her aide that you are a New York constituent and that you want to BRING THE TROOPS HOME NOW.

As Hillary runs for re-election to the United States Senate in 2006 and plots for a presidential run in 2008, we need make sure that she hears from her constituents that:

- ♦ ending the war in Iraq is our top priority: it's damaging our economy, our schools, our health, our reputation and our safety
- ♦ there is no way to bring "democracy" to Iraq while there are American boots on the ground in that country
- ♦ we want our troops home NOW

www.codepinkalert.org

www.brooklynpeace.org www.grandmothersagainstthewar.org

1. figures from icasulties.org, 2. figures from iraqbodycount.net, 3. cited in Reuters article (12/04/05 Reuters: Iraqi Voters Want Coalition Soldiers Out)

Call Senator Clinton's office

212-688-6262 (NYC) or 202-224-4451 (D.C.)

Tell her aide that you are a New York constituent and that you want to BRING THE TROOPS HOME NOW.

As Hillary runs for re-election to the United States Senate in 2006 and plots for a presidential run in 2008, we need make sure that she hears from her constituents that:

- ♦ ending the war in Iraq is our top priority: it's damaging our economy, our schools, our health, our reputation and our safety
- ♦ there is no way to bring "democracy" to Iraq while there are American boots on the ground in that country
- ♦ we want our troops home NOW

www.codepinkalert.org

www.brooklynpeace.org www.grandmothersagainstthewar.org

1. figures from icasulties.org, 2. figures from iraqbodycount.net, 3. cited in Reuters article (12/04/05 Reuters: Iraqi Voters Want Coalition Soldiers Out)

HILLARY'S RECORD ON THE WAR

A few days after Representative John Murtha (D-PA) bravely called for the redeployment of troops currently in Iraq, Hillary offered this response: an immediate U.S. withdrawal from Iraq would be "a big mistake."

*Hillary's record:

1) October, 2002: Clinton voted YES on House Joint Resolution 114, "to authorize the use of United States Armed Forces against Iraq" The measure passed the Senate 77-23.

2) April, 2003: Clinton voted YES on Senate measure 762, "to make supplemental appropriations to support Dept. of Defense operations in Iraq, Dept. of Homeland Security and Related Efforts for the fiscal year ending Sept. 30, 2003."

3) Oct., 2003: Clinton voted YES on Senate measure 1689, "to appropriate $87 billion to fund ongoing military operations in Iraq and Afghanistan. $65.6 billion of which is designated for military operations."

4) June, 2004: Clinton voted YES on Senate measure 2400, "to authorize appropriations for fiscal year 2005 activities of the Dept. of Defense," including $25 billion in emergency funding for military operations in Iraq.

(Source for all:(http://www.vote-smart.org/voting\_category.php?can\_id=WNY99268)

In addition to those votes:

In Feb., 2005 she made the somewhat dubious statements that much of Iraq was functioning well, that elections there had succeeded and that the insurgency was failing

(<http://abcnews.go.com/Politics/wireStory?id=515943>).

In Feb., 2005, she said the US should not set a deadline for troop withdrawal because it would "play into the hands of the insurgents."

(AP, February 22, 2005)

In July 2005, she called for increasing the size of the army by 80,000 soldiers.

(<http://msnbc.msn.com/id/8573139>)

On Nov. 30, 2005, in advance of Bush's major policy speech on Iraq, Clinton issued her own letter on the war. Go to <http://clinton.senate.gov/news/statements/index.cfm> to find the text. While she finally admitted that it was a mistake to have voted to give Bush authorization for the war and says that there can be an eventual "drawdown" of forces with a "smaller footprint" on the ground, she says nothing about an end to the occupation.

HILLARY'S RECORD ON THE WAR

A few days after Representative John Murtha (D-PA) bravely called for the redeployment of troops currently in Iraq, Hillary offered this response: an immediate U.S. withdrawal from Iraq would be "a big mistake."

*Hillary's record:

1) October, 2002: Clinton voted YES on House Joint Resolution 114, "to authorize the use of United States Armed Forces against Iraq" The measure passed the Senate 77-23.

2) April, 2003: Clinton voted YES on Senate measure 762, "to make supplemental appropriations to support Dept. of Defense operations in Iraq, Dept. of Homeland Security and Related Efforts for the fiscal year ending Sept. 30, 2003."

3) Oct., 2003: Clinton voted YES on Senate measure 1689, "to appropriate $87 billion to fund ongoing military operations in Iraq and Afghanistan. $65.6 billion of which is designated for military operations."

4) June, 2004: Clinton voted YES on Senate measure 2400, "to authorize appropriations for fiscal year 2005 activities of the Dept. of Defense," including $25 billion in emergency funding for military operations in Iraq.

(Source for all:(http://www.vote-smart.org/voting\_category.php?can\_id=WNY99268)

In addition to those votes:

In Feb., 2005 she made the somewhat dubious statements that much of Iraq was functioning well, that elections there had succeeded and that the insurgency was failing

(<http://abcnews.go.com/Politics/wireStory?id=515943>).

In Feb., 2005, she said the US should not set a deadline for troop withdrawal because it would "play into the hands of the insurgents."

(AP, February 22, 2005)

In July 2005, she called for increasing the size of the army by 80,000 soldiers.

(<http://msnbc.msn.com/id/8573139>)

On Nov. 30, 2005, in advance of Bush's major policy speech on Iraq, Clinton issued her own letter on the war. Go to <http://clinton.senate.gov/news/statements/index.cfm> to find the text. While she finally admitted that it was a mistake to have voted to give Bush authorization for the war and says that there can be an eventual "drawdown" of forces with a "smaller footprint" on the ground, she says nothing about an end to the occupation.